Procedure Description

Procedure

If you are a returning student and have not attended FDTC for one year, you must submit a new online application and be readmitted under the current curriculum requirements.

1. Submit an online application.
2. Readmission applicants must submit proof of high school graduation (official high school transcript or diploma) or GED from an accredited institution recognized by the state of South Carolina. Placement testing may be waived based on the transcript using multiple measures.
3. Placement testing may also be waived if 30 semester hours, including (transferable) English and Math courses, have been completed with a grade of "C" or better.
